For the sake of love

By Cory DeAngelo ©2003 Marks of Christ Publishing

G D Em C2
Your people built a temple for your name, for your glory
G D Em C2
With sacrifice they came to obey.
Am G/B C2 D
But animal's blood could not cleanse them from their sin
Am G/B C2 D
You had to throw off heaven's robe and enter in!

Chorus:
G D Em C
You came from heaven above and shed your blood for the sake of love
G D Em C
You died and rose again and send us out for the sake of love

Christ became the temple for your name for your glory
To justify he came to obey.
Immortal creator became creation as a babe
Christ entered the temple to rectify the mess we'd made

Bridge:
Am G/B C D
You walked in our shoes to set the example as a man
Am G/B C D
You hung on the cross in humble submission as the lamb
Am G/B C D
You rose from the grave, quelling hell's fury in victory
Am G/B C D
You enter our hearts igniting the fire that sets us free

Our bodies are your temple for your name for your glory
Living sacrifices by your grace
The Ark of the Covenant power is in us changing our hearts
Your holy presence now compels us to share your love